Greg Piatt, the agency's legislative liaison, gave an overview on the process of approval for revisions to the Oklahoma Nursing Practice Act. He thanked Kim Glazier, Gayle McNish, and Jackye Ward for their assistance during the last legislative session. Board members were apprised of Interim Studies which may impact the agency and of legislative matters which may be revisited in the next session. Mr. Piatt was commended by the Board for his efforts on behalf of the agency.

The Administrative Technician for renewal and reinstatement resigned to accept another position and an agency temporary employee, Chelsea Schaefer, has applied for and accepted the vacant position. The vacancy created by Ms. Schaefer moving to a permanent position has been filled and that person will report for work on August 1st. Advertisements have been running for the vacant Nurse Investigator position and application review begins August 3rd.

Dana Edminsten, the agency's Business Manager, has completed her third state certification and completed the qualifications and training for Certified Personnel Professional (CPP).

The National Council of State Boards of Nursing (NCSBN) Commitment to Ongoing Regulatory Excellence (CORE) report has been received and is being reviewed by staff. The statistical data will be presented to the Board during the review of Annual Report statistics.

The Investigative Division went live on the website as planned with discipline information from January 2009 to present. The files have been converted to a format compatible with accessibility programs, such as screen readers, in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). The National Council of State Boards of Nursing (NCSBN) has conducted audits of websites for the nursing boards and the agency will be reviewing the outcome and working with the Office of State Finance (OSF) regarding updates to the website as appropriate.

Pearson-Vue opened a new testing center in Norman, which provides an additional 15 seats for test writers. The new center has been operational since June 2011. There are now a total of three Pearson-Vue testing centers in Oklahoma, located in Norman, Oklahoma City, and Tulsa.

The Dashboard for review of agency quarterly statistical information was presented to the Board for review and discussion (attachment #5).
